Washington Township,
Bally and Bechtelsville
Boroughs Join Forces

Pupils of Washington township and Bally and Bechtelsville borough schools may be confused just at first when they return to classes for the fall term, but school boards of the three districts feel that the change made in the school set-up there will be an economical and more efficient improvement.

The school boards of the three districts the past week approved the long-debated community plan which will banish obsolete one-room schools and put unused classrooms in the larger buildings to use.

Under the plan, each school board will maintain its own identity, meeting with the other boards only once each year or when contingencies call for a special meeting.

In line with plan for streamlining the three school districts, Washington township will close its four one-room schools which in the past housed elementary grades from One to Eight.

The township will continue to operate its two-room building, providing for the First to the Fourth grades.

Bally will house grades Five

Trinity Sends 39 Members To Meeting

(Picture on Page 16)

Thirty-nine members of Trinity Evangelical Congregational church attended a session of the annual district camp meeting held at Rose Dale Grove, north of Reading, last night.

The congregation members arrived in a caravan of six cars, which left the church at 6:30 p.m. under the supervision of the Rev. Donald T. Floyd, pastor.

The church had the fifth largest attendance at the session, which was witnessed by 1400 members of the denomination. The Roversford delegation was third with 49 persons present.

Lloyd Brownback, Roversford Sunday school superintendent, announced that a seminary for training ministers will be established soon at Myersstown, Pa.

THE REV. DR. CLYDE MEAD, DOWNS, of Chambersburg, presented a sermon on "Life's Supreme Decision—The Choosing or Rejecting of Christ."

"The choice must not be delayed," he said. "In war, people flock to churches, but the choice should be made while you are able."

Leukemia Victim Returns Home

Thomas Mann, 3½-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Mann, Maple Gardens, who has been waging a long battle with inoperable leukemia, returned home yesterday by ambulance from Children's hospital, Philadelphia.

Hospital physicians listed his condition as unchanged from Wednesday's critical condition. They added that at this extreme stage of the illness, nothing could be done for him in the hospital that cannot be done for him at home by his physician-father.

The hospital said Dr. and Mrs. Mann expressed the hope that the child would not be disturbed by telephone calls to them during this crisis.

His condition was unchanged early this morning.

THE WEATHER

Hopeful and Patient

Out of this well hole, which is almost 990 feet deep, may roar a sudden fortune for Morris G. DeTurck (right), Douglassville RD 1 farmer. He and a Lancaster county man are partners in the first drilling for natural gas known to have been done in the Pottstown area. They've been on the job since the past January. Have seen several promising signs but as yet no gas strike. At left is Lester Petersheim, Morgantown, son of the owner of the well-drilling outfit, which usually drills for water.

DRILLING HAS GONE NEARLY ONE-FIFTH MILE

Farmer's Sure of Gas Deposit

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

A Pottstown area farmer making the first known attempt to strike a natural gas deposit in the area has drilled nearly a fifth of a mile below the surface without striking gas, but he is definitely not ready to give up yet.

Morris G. DeTurck, Douglass-ville RD 1, father of 12 children, and part-owner of three farms in the Monocacy-to-Yellow-House section, is doing the drilling just north of Route 422 near Baumstown in Berks county.

The drilling site is close to Daniel Boone homestead. The site is part of the land that DeTurck's ancestors bought from Daniel Boone's father.

The quiet, mannered, good-natured 52-year-old farmer has a partner in the gas-drilling—Herbert Kohl, 40-year-old machinist from New Holland, Lancaster county.

Kohl, who has observed the technique used in gas drilling around Remox, in North-Central Pennsylvania—where gas strikes made fortunes overnight—interested DeTurck in the venture after buying a 2½-acre tract from DeTurck the past October.

KOHL BECAME convinced there was gas under that land, and he persuaded DeTurck to help back him in the venture. They started drilling in January.

Yesterday, as DeTurck sat under a big field umbrella, watching the well-drilling outfit at work with a drill that was almost 990 feet below the surface, he remarked: "We're expecting to hit it, but we haven't come to it yet."

He said samples of water taken from the depths had kept their hopes alive. Kohl, who is in the Remox section this week, has told him that the water looked similar to water taken from Remox wells just before those wells struck gas.

"If we hit," DeTurck said, "there'll really be a scramble around here." (He and his partner have got ahead of the prospective scramble by leasing hundreds of nearby acres on a royalty basis.)

AS FOR Kohl's technique of deciding whether land may have natural gas below it, DeTurck said: "We're not doing much talking around about that. If we did, everybody would be around trying it."

The operation is being carried out by the outfit of L. N. Petersheim, Morgantown. Lester Petersheim, a son, said that the drilling "has been about as hard as any around here."

Children's Aid Society Provides Foster Homes

By MARTIN SALTICH
(Mercury Staff Writer)

When a child's parents become ill, separated or divorced, and can no longer care for him, the United Fund agency that steps in is the Children's Aid Society of Montgomery county, which has provided foster homes for 135 youngsters during the past year, including 20 in the Pottstown area.

"Providing families for children is our essential job," says Mildred Hanks, executive secretary. "We try to find suitable foster homes for children for either long or short periods when circumstances cause parents to break up their own family."

Miss Hanks puts particular emphasis on finding a suitable home—one which suits the needs of the individual child. "A certain home may be good for Johnny, but not for Susie," she explains.

The three staff workers of the society visit prospective foster homes to determine their suitability. The workers check whether the foster parents are financially secure, and their attitude toward children.

"We want to know why they want children," says Miss Hanks. "If they are too fixed and rigid as to what type of child they want, they may get discouraged easily."

SHE ADMITS, "We aren't perfect, and sometimes we have to move a child out of a home that isn't right for him."

The child may spend anywhere from a few months to many years at a foster home, depending on how soon the parents are able to resume responsibility for their children.

Miss Hanks emphasized that a foster child is not an orphan, since (Continued on Page Twenty-five)

Residents of Hemlock Row Will Take Petition to Council For Paving, Sewers, Lights

By ED ZUMACH
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Owners of half the 18 houses on Hemlock row, Stowe, agreed last night at a meeting in the Mt. Herman Baptist church, to sign a petition for presentation to borough council requesting a paved street in front of their homes, installation of sanitary and storm sewers and street lights and the institution of garbage collection.

The wife of a tenth owner said her husband would agree to sign and the owners present said they felt certain the remaining owners would do so too.

The petition is to be circulated by Henry Dozier, secretary of the National Association of Colored People, in a few days.

Charles Prince, the chapter's president, said at the meeting he was surprised to learn none of the owners had been approached by any borough official to sign property releases permitting the borough to replace the rock-strewn, rain-gutted dirt path in front of their homes with a paved street.

Proposed ordinances for the ordination of Hemlock row between King and Walnut streets and Ninth and Tenth streets between Johnson and State streets were not presented to council for adoption at the past Monday's council meeting reportedly because petitions requesting the ordination and property releases had not been signed by property owners on the streets.

Assistant Borough Manager Dow I. Sears said last night neither petitions nor releases had been offered to anyone in connection with any of the proposed streets because petitions must be submitted by the residents first.

HE ADDED that the borough will show residents how the petitions must be submitted, but the residents must circulate the petitions themselves.

He continued, that even though all the Hemlock row home owners sign such a petition the borough could not construct the street immediately after passing the ordinance accepting the land for the street. It first must receive a release for property at the north end of the row near Walnut street which is not owned by a Hemlock row resident.

In addition to providing for a 40-foot wide street 300 to 400 feet

1st Step Taken to Create Park Between Churches

The erection of a Colonial-style brick wall between two North Hanover street churches will begin soon, and is the probable forerunner of a move to turn a historic graveyard there into a small, attractive memorial park in mid-borough.

This was reported yesterday by Francis W. Hunsberger, an elder of Zion's Reformed church and a member of the committee representing both it and Emmanuel Lutheran church, which jointly own the graveyard located between them.

The construction of the brick wall, averaging four feet in height, with a double-pitched brick top, is expected to be completed by the year's end, and possibly by Fall.

The wall will face North Hanover street, on the East side, and will span the length of the graveyard, which is between Zion's, at Hanover and Chestnut streets, and Emmanuel, at Hanover and Walnut streets.

There would be a central entrance, with double gates.

Hunsberger said it is the committee's "dream" that the building of the brick wall will be followed by the removal of the grave markers in the cemetery; the surfacing and landscaping of the graveyard, and the erection of memorial plaques as a backdrop for a small park.

"This," he said, "would I feel be a wonderful addition to the community." He pointed out that it would provide a community park in an atmosphere of both religious and historic significance.

HUNSBERGER EMPHASIZED that the ultimate goal still is "only a dream" and that no agreement on it has yet been reached by the two churches.

Court approval would be required for such a move, he mentioned.

Hurt, But Not Badly

William Toslo, Good Will ambulance driver, inspects the wreckage of a sedan in which three teenagers escaped serious injury when it upset on State street a mile south of Route 100 last night at 11:45 o'clock. The driver, Robert Kirlin, 16, of 26 West Fifth street, received brush burns of both elbows while the other two passengers were uninjured.

High School Tuition Rates To Go Down

Tuition rates for out-of-town pupils at Pottstown Senior High school will register marked declines either in the coming school year or in 1953 as a result of a number of economy measures to reduce school expenditures, H. Bert Shaw, president of the school board announced yesterday.

Senior High school enrollment has been falling in the past few years and complaints have been received that the borough's tuition rate at the Senior High school is much higher than at other localities, Shaw reported.

Some of the economy measures which may show up next week when tuition rates for the coming school year are completed include the transfer of a home economics teacher from the Senior High school to the Junior High school.

This action will reduce the ex-

Traffic Hazard Relief Promised

The traffic hazard created by installation of a traffic light at Prospect and Charlotte streets will be referred to council's police committee for action "very soon."

Dow I. Sears, assistant borough manager, said last night. "That condition will be taken care of. We have to have a police committee meeting very soon to consider that and other problems."

The hazard is focused on the bus stop on the southwest corner of Charlotte street. Borough officials have agreed the condition can be corrected if the loading platform is changed.

Buses stopping at the present platform block motorists heading south on Charlotte street when they have the green light.

Patsy Is Still Among Missing

Patsy, the turquoise parakeet of Mrs. Ruth B. Kirkpatrick, 26 South Charlotte street, which flew out of the house with two other parakeets, since returned, still was missing last night.

"I'm still hoping," Mrs. Kirkpatrick said. The trio escaped when one of them opened their cage. One parakeet walked into the nearby Pep Boys store; the second was found on Queen street.

Pottstown Portraits

A Quick Look at Your Neighbor

By LARRY DAVIS

SINCE 1936 when he returned to Pottstown from the West Coast, Earl Franklin Antrim, 412 Cherry street, has taken an active part in the borough's civic life, its youth activities and its veterans affairs. He has made himself available to community life despite a handicap that would have brought lesser men to a dead stop long ago.

Earl F. Antrim

Partial blindness—the result of being gassed in World War I—has made him more keenly aware of the need for community progress.

Antrim, who will observe his 58th birthday September 30, is the second of three sons born to the late Harry F. and Ada E. Antrim; and while there are several families of the same name in Pottstown and vicinity, they have no clan tie with him. His older brother, Russell, lives at Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., and the younger brother, William, is a resident of Toledo, Ohio.

He was born in Pottstown and moved to the Cherry street address when he was a boy. His father, who died in 1936, was for 24 years an iron puddler. His mother died the past year.

His education was begun in the former elementary school at Cherry and Franklin and continued at the Chestnut street school, the Richards school, and one year of Senior High school.

Following his service in World War I, he studied marine drafting and ship construction at the Williamson Trade school, and then completed a three-year course in agriculture at the University of Delaware.

On April 4, 1918, he entered the Army, serving in France with the 398th Machinegun Battalion of the 78th (Lightning) Division. He survived the Meuse-Argonne offensive, but at St. Mihiel suffered shrapnel wounds of the left leg. There, too, he was gassed with mustard and phosgene which 15 years later was to have a telling effect on his eyes.

After studying at Williamson and the University of Delaware, failing health prompted him in 1925 to go West, a trip that ended at Los Angeles. There, for several years, he was in the restaurant business. From a small lunch room, he built the business into a chain of three eating places until he was caught in the full pressure of the depression in 1932.

"A fellow with capital," Antrim says in retrospect, "might have survived. But I didn't have it. It got so bad that the 65 cent lunch dropped to 30 cents."

Two years later, he was hospitalized for nine months when his loss of sight became apparent.

But, in 1935, largely for his health, Antrim stirred up a small flurry when as the "Bicycle Ambassador for the City of Los Angeles," and with papers signed by Mayor Frank Shaw to prove it, he completed a 9336-mile trip through the United States, Canada and Mexico.

His adventure started April 10 and was completed on November 13, not without mishaps including being picked up by the Buffalo, N. Y., police and being run into by motorists.

"I'd like to make that trip again," he says, "but I wouldn't do it alone."

The following Spring, he was set for the 6-day bicycle races when an accident, which nearly tore off his right arm, knocked him out of competition. Shortly after, he returned to Pottstown.

Antrim, a bachelor, has been devoted to the activity of the Pottstown Post 780, Veterans of Foreign Wars, since 1938. He has served two terms as commander (1946-47 and 1947-48), has been a delegate to 12 State conventions and nine national conventions.

He first became interested in boys' work on the West coast where he was a scoutmaster.

When he returned to Pottstown, he organized two boys' clubs at the Rupert school, which lasted for seven years, and organized and conducted the local marble tournament for 11 years. From 1940 to 1943 he was Boys Work secretary for the YMCA.

A relapse in his visual handicap during the recent VFW National Convention at Los Angeles has served to strengthen his philosophy of life.

"If all people," he suggests, "would just live with their fellow men and feel and show consideration, what a wonderful world it would be."

BACK in his high school days, Ronald M. Neiman had a deep-rooted interest in two fields of activity: music and radio repair. Today, married to his childhood sweetheart, father of two children and living at 938 South Hills boulevard, his former hobbies are paying his way through life.

Ronald M. Neiman

For the past 18 years he has been a radio (and more recently a TV) repairman and for 16 years he has held down the trumpet chair with the six-piece Ken Nichols orchestra. Like many of Pottstown's musicians of years standing, he has had his share of hopping around the eastern seaboard's night club circuit.

With 130 pounds packed on a five foot, three inch frame, Neiman is a native of Pottstown. He was born on April 1, 1912, the son of the late Charles and Ethel Neiman. His father for years had been employed in the white metal department of the Doehler Jarvis corporation.

Following the death of his mother in the tragic 1918 flu epidemic, Neiman was raised by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Moyer, at 401 Chestnut street. He was educated at the Chestnut street school, the Jefferson school, the old Junior High school, and is a 1932 graduate of Pottstown High school where he took a general course.

At the age of eight, Neiman began the study of piano under the Ralph Yonn, and later studied the violin under Charles Zimmerman. In his youth, also, he was tutored on the trumpet by Eugene Weidner, director of the famous Ringgold band, and with Lloyd Geisler, now with the National Symphony in Washington.

Following his graduation in the depression 30s he played with the orchestras of Sleepy Hall and Charlie Boulanger, both of New York City, and toured the South with the Ross Russell stage review.

That trip was a minor disaster. His expensive trumpet was stolen (he replaced it with one costing $14, including case) and the review folded at Daytona Beach, Fla. He didn't eat regularly for two weeks.

Back North, he played both the Madison Square Garden and Boston Garden Rodeos with Everett Johnson, of Chicago. By that time, he had reached his 21st birthday. A stretch with Joe Ritchie, on the South Jersey night spot circuit followed. Then he soured on the music business as a career.

As a 'teen ager he built crystal and one-tube radios. So, after pulling himself away from the music world, Neiman studied radio repair by correspondence course, finishing in 1934.

He spent two years repairing radios for Raymond L. Moore, tried the road again in music and finally came to rest.

On May 16, 1937, he married his school days "steady," the former Miss Grace Hoerl, of Pottstown, in the First Baptist church. Two years later, he left Moore and joined the firm of Hatfield and Shaner in the radio department, an association which lasted until 1942 when he went into the business for himself at 433½ Chestnut street.

But, music was in Neiman's veins. During the Summers, he played the Jersey Beach route with Woody Leigh's orchestra and has continued to be a member of the Nichols combination since 1936.

When he gave up his business in 1948, he joined the C. J. Keiser company as radio and TV repairman, and in 1951 went with the local outlet of the Sears Roebuck chain where he is now service manager.

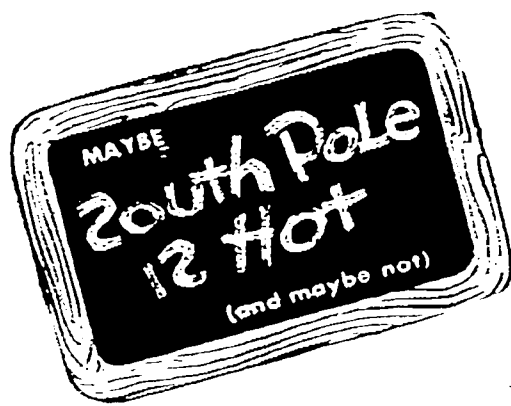

Through his 150-watt amateur radio station, W3MXU, he has been in contact with all the continents and with 57 countries, both by voice and code. He is secretary of the 25-member Pottstown Amateur Radio association, and carries a card with Local 211, Musicians' Protective association (AFM).

The Neiman household includes his wife, a daughter Caryl Lynne, 6; a son, Randall Alan, 3; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Moyer, and a beautiful Collie dog.

CIO Throws Its Support Behind Drive For Presidency by Gov. Adlai Stevenson

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (AP)—The tradition and publicly come out CIO, in a move which had been expected for some time, today threw its support behind the presidential drive of Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate.

In a resolution adopted by its 46-man policy board, the labor organization declared "the entrenched old guard" controls the Republican party and predicted an overwhelming November victory for Stevenson and Senator John J. Sparkman, of Alabama, his running mate.

The resolution avoided specific mention of Republican candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower. But, in an obvious countermove to Republican charges that Stevenson is a "captive candidate" of labor unions and big city political organizations, the board said:

"No (Republican) candidate, however respected and well intentioned could wrest power from the entrenched old guard who still control the Republican party."

The Stevenson endorsement, including a statement that the Democratic platform is the "most liberal, forward-looking and realistic ever adopted by any political party," marked the high spot of a three-day political-parley of leaders of the CIO and its Political Action committee (PAC).

Test Pilot Is Killed When Jet Bomber Explodes in Flight

BURROWSVILLE, Aug. 14 (AP)—One of the pioneers of faster than sound flight plummeted to his death today from an exploding B-45 jet bomber.

He was Test Pilot Hebert H. Hoover, a native of Knoxville, Tenn., the first man to fly the Bell X-1, an experimental prototype of present-day supersonic aircraft.

The heavy four-jet engine aircraft exploded over this southeastern Virginia community and Hoover and a companion, J. A. Harper, of Warwick, Va., bailed out.

Harper landed safely, except for a bruised shoulder. But searchers found the crumpled body of Hoover, his hand clutching the ripcord of his unopened parachute.

BOTH MEN were employed by the National Advisory committee for aeronautics laboratory at Langley Field, Va., for which they were testing the aircraft.

Harper said he and Hoover jumped after the first of two explosions shook the aircraft. Hoover going out first. The second blast shattered the plane and scattered its wreckage over a three-mile area.

The explosions occurred over Burrowsville, in Prince George county some 30 miles south of Richmond.

The forward part of the fuselage ploughed into the earth, digging a crater ten feet across and 20 feet deep.

Hoover was the first pilot to exceed the speed of sound in an NACA aircraft and the second to break the sonic barrier in any plane.

He had made more than a dozen such flights in all. He received the Air Force association award in 1948 for that year's most notable achievement in flight contributing to the nation's air defense.

Hoover was a graduate of the University of Tennessee and served in the Army Air Corps from 1934 to 1937. He was a member of the Air Force's first active long-range reconnaissance unit, the 18th Reconnaissance squadron, then stationed at Mitchell Field, N. Y.

Board of Health Meets, Hears Officer's Report

The monthly meeting of the borough Board of Health was held at the home of the secretary-treasurer, Daniel A. Rohrbach, 516 East Fourth street, Boyertown, with the president, Dr. John H. Waring, in charge.

The members heard the monthly report of the health officer, Harry I. Gilbert, which showed the following communicable diseases: Whooping cough, one; and measles, one.

Gilbert also reported having one complaint which he investigated and having notified the property owner, is being corrected.

Gloria Grahame Gets Divorce for Cruelty

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 14 (AP)—Shapely Gloria Grahame, 25, testified today that she lost weight because her husband was sullen and morose.

"It hurt my eating," she told Superior court. That was enough to win her a divorce, on the ground of cruelty, from Nick Ray, 40, movie director.

There was little evidence of any permanent damage. She appeared in court in a black dress as low cut as any court attaches could remember. She wore a white sweater over it, unbuttoned. White gloves and a close-fitting white hat studied with pearls set off the ensemble.

The actress was awarded $300 a month for support of their son, Timothy, three, plus $10 monthly for his education fund. She asked no alimony.

Eddinger Tops Briel To Cop Quoit Crown In Playground Tilt

Royden Eddinger yesterday became the boys' quoit tournament champion when he defeated Linwood Briel in the finals by scores of 21-15 and 21-13.

Prior to the finals, Eddinger had defeated William Schoenly by scores of 21-15 and 21-19. Briel had defeated Ronald Dierolf by scores of 21-14 and 21-16.

The tournament, a part of the Summer playground activities being conducted on the Washington grade school grounds, had started earlier this week with an original entry of 16 boys.

In the initial playoffs: Royden Eddinger defeated Larry Peck, 21-7, 21-13; William Schultz lost to Lawrence Messen, 9-21, 13-21; William Schoenly defeated Larry Miller, 21-9, 21-15; Randall Beryl defeated Timothy Downer, 17-21, 21-5; Joe Koons, 7-21, 11-21; Linwood Briel defeated Ralph Bower, 21-16, 21-20; Ronald Dierolf defeated William Gabel, 21-12, 21-14; and Robert Mauzer defeated Darrell Benzing, 21-5 and 21-2.

Eddinger then played against Messen and defeated him by scores of 21-19, 21-13; William Schoenly defeated Beryl, 21-12, 21-14; Briel defeated Koons, 21-19, 21-12; and Dierolf defeated Mauzer, 23-20, and 21-11.

Today will mark the final day of the eight weeks of activities at the playground which was under the direction of Harry I. Gilbert and Mrs. Louise K. Nyce. Janice Quigley has been in charge of the crafts program.

Stephen Foster, creator of such American folk songs as "My Old Kentucky Home" and "Old Folks at Home," was born on the same day that both Presidents John Adams and Thomas Jefferson died—July 4, 1826.

Truck and 2 Autos Damaged in Wreck On Hanover Street

A truck and two autos were damaged in front of 63 North Hanover street yesterday afternoon at 12:45 o'clock.

The truck, driven by Harry W. Picdell, Pottstown RD 3, struck a coupe pulling out of a parking spot in front of that address and pushed it into a parked sedan.

George Makarevitz, Pottstown RD 3, was driving his car out of the parking space. The parked car belonged to Andy Billy, 233 Logan street.

Picdell told Patrolman Thomas W. Corum that he was going south on Hanover street and saw the coupe pull out from the curb on the west side of Hanover street.

"I tried to cut to the left but I could not avoid hitting the car," Picdell said.

Makarevitz reported that he was pulling out from the curb when the truck struck his car and pushed it into the parked vehicle.

THE TRUCK, which belonged to Rubin Brothers company, 430 South street, was damaged on the rear wheel and tire.

The left front fender and wheel and the right front hub cap of the Makarevitz's coupe were bent.

The entire left side of Billy's sedan was scraped and the left rear door and fender were dented.

took off her shoe and knocked some of the broken glass away from the shattered windshield and she and the boys crawled through the opening.

One of the boys told her to go home and a passing motorist took her.

The sedan, which belonged to Sheetz's brother, Emerson, of the same address, had scratches all over its body, and the top and the left side were badly dented. All of the glass on the left side was shattered.

Truck, Horse Fall
Send 2 to Hospital

Falls from a truck and a horse sent a Pottstown man and a Pottstown RD 1 youth to Pottstown hospital late yesterday afternoon.

Frederick Mack, 22, was admitted to the hospital with abrasions of the left side of his chest after he fell from a truck, owned by a mineral water company. Whether or not his injuries are more extensive will be determined today.

The boy, Frederick Stoudt, 14, was admitted shortly after with a leg injury suffered when he either was thrown by or fell from a horse he was riding. The exact nature of his injury had not been determined.

This 1951 sedan operated by Linwood Gehris, 30, of Barle RD 1, skidded into a culvert at an intersection in Morysville at 8:58 o'clock last night. Gehris was traveling toward Boyertown on Route 362, when he increased his speed to pass another car near Route 194. Another car was waiting at the intersection to make a right turn, and Gehris applied his brakes suddenly to avoid hitting it. His sedan skidded into a culvert, hitting a guard rail. Gehris backed the car out of the culvert, with the aid of several bystanders. He reported only minor damage to the bumper.

Cyclist Collides With Auto; Gets Stitches in Chin

A 16-year-old bicyclist ran into the side of a moving sedan yesterday noon and received a deep cut in his chin when he fell to the ground.

John Vogt, 30, West Fourth street, was treated at Pottstown hospital dispensary where four stitches were put in his chin to close the wound.

Vogt was riding east on Second street when he hit a sedan driven by Mrs. Mary E. Rhoads, 341 Queen street, at the York street intersection.

William F. Euston, 16 West Fourth street, took the boy to the hospital.

THE ACCIDENT WAS reported to Borough hall by Mrs. Rhoads. She said she was going south on York street and at the York street intersection the boy on the bicycle, who was going east on Second street, made a left turn on York street while looking in the opposite direction.

He hit the right front fender of her car, she said.

Loitering Charge Brings $13 Fine

A 20-year-old Pottstown youth was fined $13 and costs on a charge of loitering and disorderly conduct at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley, of the Second Ward, last night.

Isaac Clifford, 20, of 553 Walnut street, was arrested by Motor Patrolman Stanley Borowy at the corner of Walnut and Warren streets last night at 9 o'clock when he was told to move away from that corner with a group of about ten other youths.

Borowy said that Clifford demanded to know why he should leave the corner.

When Borowy told the boy complaints had been made by residents in the past that a fence had been broken in the vicinity and that the congregation of boys on the corner made too much noise, Borowy reported that Clifford insisted that he still know the reason why he should have to move.

All the other youths dispersed when he ordered them to move. Borowy said, and when Clifford refused to co-operate, he said, he arrested him for loitering and disorderly conduct.

crowded conditions in their homes to have those persons living with them apply to Edmund J. Koser, executive director of the county Housing authority, for quarters in the nearby project.

"He told me," Prince said, "that you should do that and he would do whatever he could to help you. He has to take the most severe cases first, he said, and I can only take his word that he will try to help you."

Dozier stated that the "Ninth ward has been neglected" by the borough that "I was assured by a reliable source that this street was to be put in here, but it hasn't been."

He added that he did not know why the street has not been constructed, but, "We do know that the people here have been lax in not taking it to council."

"You paid your hard-earned money for these homes and they are reported in Norristown for tax purposes," Dozier continued. "Other streets have been in bad condition in Pottstown and they have been fixed."

The home owners present at the meeting included John G. Douglas, 45 Hemlock row; William Whitehurst 44; Albert Harper, 37; Mrs. Isabel Charles, who with her husband owns 49 and 50; Langston Green, owner of 31 and 32, and the Rev. Garlington, who owns 33 and 34.

Mrs. Ida Harper, whose husband owns 38 Hemlock row, was the woman assuring the other residents her husband would sign the proposed petition.

Others attending the meeting were the Rev. Daniel Charles, pastor of the Mt. Herman church; Luis E. Lambert, West High street; a deacon of the church; Mrs. Geneva Andrew, 26 Prince street; Mrs. Pearl McMullen 432 Vine street; Isaac Turlington, 21 Prince street; and Ernest Williams, 415 Elm street, Stowe.

About 250,000 beetles have been catalogued in museums, says the National Geographic Society.

Station Wagon Collides With Sedan on Rt. 29

An estimated $425 to $500 damage was caused by the crash of a sedan and station wagon on Route 29 in Graterford yesterday afternoon at 12:10 o'clock.

The station wagon driver was Ray A. Shaffer, Schwenksville plumber. He told Theodore Berry, chief of police in Schwenksville and vicinity, that he'd been driving north on the highway when a sedan pulled into the path of his car.

The sedan driver, Francis E. Bollinger, Philadelphia, said he'd been driving west on the road from Eastern penitentiary, had stopped for the Stop sign at Route 29, but then had failed to see the station wagon as he pulled out.

Chief Berry estimated $500-$550 as the damage to the station wagon's grille, the left front fender, left headlight and the radiator which was pushed back against the engine.

The left rear of the sedan had $125-$150 damage. A woman passenger in Bollinger's car, who declined to give her name to Chief Berry, was bruised slightly.

Mother Charges Aunt Kept Tol From Doctor

WETUMPKA, Ala., Aug. 14 (AP)—The mother of a poisoned child testified today that the middle-aged nurse who has admitted killing her tried to keep the tot away from a doctor after she became ill.

Mrs. Cora Belle Weldon, whose 2-year-old daughter died suddenly given to her by Mrs. Dennison and violently the past May 1, was when she suggested taking the first witness called in the murder trial of Mrs. Earle Dennison, and more violent vomiting spell the child's aunt. Mrs. Dennison is charged with killing blonde, curly-haired Shirley Diann Weldon and also with giving a fatal dose of arsenic to another Weldon girl, Polly Ann, two and a half years before.

She is on trial now, however, only for Shirley Diann's death. Mrs. Weldon told the all-male jury that the baby became ill the mother related, Mrs. Dennison tried to dissuade her with the explanation that the child merely had "an upset stomach."

17-Year-Old Gauguins Turn Garage Muralists

LAKEWOOD, Calif., Aug. 14 (AP)—Two 17-year-old high school girls found some left-over house paint and turned it into life-sized Hawaiian murals on their garage. Both girls, Jeanette Wallace and Pat Brehm, are art students and their handwork has received numerous compliments.

In fact, says Pat, a neighbor has hired them to do murals on three sides of his patio.

Red Boss New Head of Hungary

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Aug. 14 (AP)—then was elected the new speaker—Communist boss Matyas Rakosi of Parliament. Rakosi has been the premier of this Soviet orbit last representative of the former nation today. A sudden shift of Social Democrats to remain prominent jobs made the behind-the-scenes in Hungarian political life. leader the legal director of Hungary.

WHEN THE shift was accomplished, and Rakosi formally in a specially called, one-day session inaugurated as premier, the Communist Party made a speech in Parliament elected him by acclamation. The ovation lasted eight minutes.

Istvan Dobi, who had been premier and a one-time member of the Smallholders party, formally resigned. He then was given the job of president of Parliament's presidium, the executive body which sits when Parliament is not in session. This makes him the president—a figurehead position—of the country.

To make way for Dobi, Sandor Rónai resigned as president. He with words and deeds," he said.

Dobi and Rónai both attended the session. Like Rakosi, they were garbed in solemn black, looking warm on this hottest day of Hungary's Summer.

HUNGARY'S PARLIAMENT, elected under Communist direction on a single ticket in 1949, usually meets only twice a year for a few days each time, to approve the budget and whatever other measures are submitted by the Communist administration.

Dobi, the new president, had been premier since December, 1948. The 54-year-old former landless peasant was a leading member of the now defunct Smallholders party, the country's dominant party until the arrival of the Communists.

At the present time, the former Smallholders have only one post in the Hungarian Government, which has 25 cabinet ministries plus the premier and minister of state. Two of the ministries are of the National Peasant party, which has little meaning here today. For all practical purposes, parties other than the Communist do no exist in Hungary.

The Social Democrats, of which Rónai had been a member, merged with the Communists in 1948. By that time, most of the right wing Social Democrats had escaped from Hungary. Thereafter, left wing members who supported the merger one by one disappeared in the course of several purges.

The shift in Hungary's Government appears to have been dictated by Moscow as part of its new policy for all the satellite countries. Elimination of non-Communist elements in the governments and full and open control by the Communist party.

The shift resembles a similar shakeup in Romania recently.

Members of Trinity Evangelical Congregational church are shown leaving in a caravan of six private cars for the annual district camp meeting held at Rosedale Grove last night. The church had the fifth largest delegation — 39 persons — at the service, which had a total attendance of 1400 demonstration members. The Rev. Donald T. Floyd, pastor, read the scripture and led the prayers at the session. (Story on Page 1).

Where Roach Filmz Is—Ants and Roaches Ain't

Roach Filmz is a new scientific development containing Chlordane for the control of household insect pests.

It is applied with a brush to places where ants, roaches, water bugs, silver fish, etc. are likely to crawl. One application leaves an invisible film that is effective for months.

When an insect crawls over the surface, where invisible Roach Filmz has been applied, their legs become paralyzed and they die within about 3 hours.

It is the perfect control and does away with messy powders and sprays. The price is low, only 68c for 1/2-pint, $1.19 per pint and $1.95 per quart.

Marines Turn Back Reds' Sneak Attack To Recapture Hill

SEOUL, Friday, Aug. 15 (AP) — Fighting U. S. Marines today turned back a fifth Chinese Red attempt to recapture strategic Bunker hill on the western Korean front.

The attack was a sneak punch launched without the usual artillery warning.

Two Chinese companies — about 500 men — struck in the dark before dawn.

One company was moving up the valley between Siberia hill and Bunker hill when Marine lookouts spotted the Reds. Allied guns opened fire.

"We clubbed them," a first Marine division spokesman said.

THE OTHER Red company launched a direct frontal assault and a racing fight developed.

The Communists poured in artillery shells at the rate of 100 a minute. Their fire pulverized the shell-pocked slope.

The Leathernecks blazed away from their pre-fabricated bunkers. Allied artillery joined in the roaring engagement.

In two hours the Chinese were beaten off.

The attack was the first in about 24 hours. Early Thursday morning the Reds launched a half-hearted assault that sputtered out in four minutes.

The five assaults against the hill, won Tuesday by the heat-grimed Marines, have cost the Chinese heavy casualties.

Marines looking down from the heights could see the bodies of the Chinese, sprawled in groups of eight and 10, who had died trying to get to them through the curtain of small arms and artillery fire.

Maj. Gen. John T. Selden, commander of the U. S. First Marine division, estimated the Marines had killed "well over 500 of the enemy" with countless more wounded.

Barkley Claims Ike a 'Captive'

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 14 (AP) — Vice President Alben Barkley suggested today that Dwight Eisenhower, rather than Gov. Adlai Stevenson, might prove to be the captive candidate of the 1952 presidential race.

The "captive" tag has been put on the Democratic standard bearer by Republicans, including Sen. Richard M. Nixon, the GOP nominee for vice president.

Nixon spoke to a Republican Day gathering at the Illinois State fair Wednesday, and Barkley replied from the same platform to a Democratic Day audience today.

Barkley implied that Eisenhower, if elected, might find his foreign policy aims frustrated by GOP congressional candidates he recently endorsed.

"When I think of this Republican crusade I wonder whose voice it is that will speak in Washington," he said.

"If the Republican candidate is elected, it may be that the voice that will speak from the White House will be Jacob's but the time by American military assistance and by indirect economic aid in several forms.

The United States, Britain and France reportedly have agreed on a total of 99 million dollars in direct economic assistance.

This represents a reduction from 120 million supplied the past year but economic assistance is now being supplemented for the first time by American military assistance and by indirect economic aid in several forms.

Turnover of Parties Called Loaded Cigar

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 14 (AP) — Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson appealed to the States today to stop a "tidal drift" of power toward Washington. And then he ripped into the Republican call for a change in administration as a novelty cigar that might explode in the people's face.

The free-swinging address hit at centralized power in Federal Government, raked the GOP high command including former President Herbert Hoover, and ranged into a proud display of the governor's own record as a civil administrator.

This was Stevenson's first major address since his nomination and it appeared to be a sample of the rapier-thrust tactics the Republicans can expect from him in his campaign for the Presidency.

On centralized Federal power, Stevenson told an audience at the Illinois State fairgrounds:

"We talk about and deplore incessantly the increasing centralization of power over our lives in Washington. But that tidal drift toward the capital will go on and on unless those necessary functions of Government which don't have to be performed in Washington are performed, and properly performed, at the State or local level. The people will demand the services and if they don't get them at home they will turn to Uncle Sam."

"THE STATES are the dikes which we can build more strongly against the flood waters sweeping toward the District of Columbia."

On the Republican plea for a change, he said:

"I have been hearing a great deal about the need for a change. I had always thought that Americans liked change for the better and disliked change for the worse."

WARREN, O., Aug. 14 (AP) — Cursing robbers ran a bank manager's car off a residential street today and fled with $71,000 in a daring daylight holdup.

It was the second multi-thousand dollar daylight robbery here in just over a year, and Paul J. Shine, agent-in-charge of the Cleveland FBI office, declared, "We need all the help we can get."

Shine urged anyone with information in the case to "phone the FBI or local authorities."

The holdup car — a 1949 or 1950 Oldsmobile — roared up beside Charles Foley as he was taking the money from the Union Savings and Trust company's main office to the Woodland avenue branch, of which he is manager.

CROWDING FOLEY'S car to the side of the street, two men wearing weird masks of slitted burlap leaped out of the automobile, brandishing a shotgun and revolver.

One broke a window in Foley's car with the shotgun butt. Then, snarling obscene threats, the pair grabbed a package which contained the cash in ones to twenties.

SON GRADUATES

LONG BEACH, Calif., Aug. 14 (AP) — Peter Oden Forrester, son of the late Navy Secretary James Forrester, is among 402 graduates of the Naval Reserve Officer Candidate school to be commissioned as a governors' conference to talk over drought relief, and the President was invited.

There have been at least two other meetings between rival candidates in this century, but they were not held at the White House affairs.

About four hours after the President's news conference, Bradley issued a statement saying:

"Last Thursday the President advised me of his wish that Gen. Eisenhower be furnished this information and asked me to get in touch with Gen. Eisenhower."

Truman's Invitation To Ike Is Precedent; Offer Turned Down

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (AP) — Some veteran Washington observers could recall no exact precedent for President Truman's invitation to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to come to the White House for a briefing on the foreign situation.

Eisenhower, the Republican presidential nominee, rejected the invitation today. He said he felt it would be unwise for him to accept.

Eisenhower did, however, welcome Truman's offer of a weekly summary of the foreign picture prepared by the Central Intelligence agency (CIA).

That is a partial parallel to an incident of the 1944 presidential campaign between Franklin D. Roosevelt and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. John Foster Dulles, acting for Dewey, held a series of conferences that year with Cordell Hull, who was Roosevelt's secretary of state. They were concerned primarily with the four-power Dumbarton Oaks conferences, a preliminary to formation of the United Nations the following year.

THERE WAS, however, no meeting between Dewey and Roosevelt, then running for a fourth term.

Such a meeting did take place four years later, between Truman and Dewey, but it was not the sort of thing Truman proposed to do.

But she memorized the license, Eisenhower this year, Truman was plate — Ohio 1966D — which police found had been stolen the night before in Toronto, Ohio.

Foley, who was not harmed, said the holdup obviously was well-planned and perfectly timed. He said he was unaware of anyone following him and first noticed the car as it sped alongside him.

THE WHITE HOUSE said the move to keep Eisenhower informed was started long before Stevenson attended the briefing here, although the telegram of invitation to Eisenhower did not reach him until yesterday morning.

No Urgency, Omar Thought

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (AP) — President Truman said today the Defense department had notified Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower a week or more ago he would receive a regular summary of Government intelligence reports, but Gen. Omar Bradley said tonight Eisenhower had not been so notified.

Bradley said he had been assigned to tell Eisenhower he could get the reports, but believing there was no hurry, he had planned to take the matter up with Eisenhower on Eisenhower's forthcoming trip to the East.

Bradley, chief of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said in a careful statement:

"Being unfamiliar with political matters it never occurred to me that the timing of notification might become an issue, or I would have gotten in touch with Gen. Eisenhower immediately."

The timing became an issue in this way:

President Truman invited Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic nominee for the presidency, to a White House cabinet luncheon Tuesday. Stevenson also was given a briefing on the world situation by Bradley and others.

REPUBLICANS IMMEDIATELY protested, saying this showed: (1) That Stevenson was a "captive" of the Truman Administration and (2) that Truman was involving military officers like Bradley in politics.

Truman invited Eisenhower to a similar cabinet luncheon and briefing. Eisenhower turned the invitation down. Republicans charged that Truman, having made a wrong move by inviting Stevenson, was trying to "get off the hook" by extending a similar bid to Eisenhower.

The White house said the move to keep Eisenhower informed was started long before Stevenson attended the briefing here, although the telegram of invitation to Eisenhower did not reach him until yesterday morning.

Meeting of Bible Class Held in St. Paul's Church

The Ladies' Bible class of St. Paul's Reformed church, Stowe, met last night in the church.

Mrs. Henry Frech was appointed by the group to purchase a new electric mixer for the church kitchen.

A sewing kit brought by Miss Ruth Wisler and was won by Mrs. Charles Mauger.

Mrs. Charles Shomo read the treasurer's report.

After refreshments were served the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Those present were: Mrs. Shomo, Mrs. Mauger, Mrs. Frech, Mrs. Walter Reed, Mrs. William Mauger, Miss Wisler and Mrs. Fred White.

Auxiliary Meeting Held In New Good Will Hall

Because of the Lady Reindeer convention starting Sunday in New York, the regular meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Good Will Fire company was held two weeks early, last night at 8 o'clock, in the club's new home, 709 High street.

Social time and refreshments, served by Mrs. Helen Smoyer and her committee, followed the business meeting. Pies in the box, donated by Mrs. Cora Takach, Mrs. Violet Arch, Mrs. Margaret Noecker, and Mrs. Helen Hall, were won by Mrs. Arch, Mrs. Ada Beekley, Mrs. Noecker, and Mrs. Ruth Levengood.

The special, won by Mrs. Beekley, was donated by Mrs. Noecker.

In addition to the winners mentioned above, Mrs. Lilhan Ginder, president; Mrs. Elsie Shaner, Mrs. Thelma Somogyi, Mrs. Ida Yeager, Mrs. Florence Richmond, and Mrs. Lily Boucher were present.

Sports Auxiliary Plans For Future Clam Bake

The business meeting of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Pine Forge Sportsman club last night in the club house, was short.

There was discussion of plans for another clam bake, but no definite date was set. Social games and activities were begun after Mrs. Clare Levengood, president, closed the meeting. It was she who donated the pig-in-the-box won by Mrs. Violet Renninger. The guessing jar, donated by Mrs. Louise Trainer, was given to Mrs. Catherine Weller. The ladies then played cards.

Use left-over material to preserve your stockings. By sewing two squares or two circles together and adding a pull-string, you can have a neat, attractive bag in which to place your stockings. This keeps them from catching on splinters of wood inside the drawer.

Corn Roast Enjoyed By Girl Scout Troop At Geist Residence

A perfect night was provided by Mother Nature for the corn roast held last night by members of Girl Scout Troop 4 of Grace Lutheran church.

Held at the home of the troop leader, Miss Mildred Geist, Ringing Hill, the cool air gave the girls enough appetite to devour four dozen ears of corn.

EACH BROUGHT her own hot dogs and enjoyed a desert of chocolate drops, consisting of marshmallows dipped in chocolate sauce. Later the group enjoyed songs brought back by the girls who attended a Girl Scout camp in the Pocono mountains.

Attending were: Anita and Kathleen Shaner, Mary Alice McCabe, Joan Russell, Patricia Hanna, Regina Shiffert, Susan Keeler, Ruth Moyer, Joanne Leiser, Joan Galeen Dawn Hill, was feteed recently at a bridal shower given by Mrs. Gerald Kulp, Barbara Johnson, Barbara Hett, Barbara Shaner and Diane and Linda Sandquist.

Miss LaRue Bickel, another leader, also was present.

Mrs. Paul Callow Fetes Her Bride-to-Be Sister

At a recent shower given by Mrs. Paul Callow, 32 North Evans street, for her sister, Miss Esther Renninger, guests were asked to bring a favorite recipe or house hold hint which might help the bride-to-be.

Miss Renninger is to marry Mr. Kenneth Garner Saturday, Aug. 23, in the Linfield Evangelical and Reformed church.

Cooks, helpers, and givers of gifts were as follows: Miss Mildred Jones, Mrs. Jane Reichman, Mabel, Clair, Shirley, and Mrs. Wilmer Renninger, Helen Grebe, Barbara and Mrs. Irene Wentzel.

Mrs. Horner Entertains Young Ladies' Bible Class

The August meeting of the Young Ladies' Bible class of Pine Swamp church was held recently at the home of Mrs. Jonathan Horner.

Hostesses were Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Elsie Beekley, Mrs. Stella Gonder Horner and Mrs. Helena Missimer.

Plans for the winter season bazaar to be held Sept. 3 and 5 on were made. One project will be to raise money for the new high school to be built in Mooschoart.

Plans for the new high school to be built in Mooschoart, Bixler, Mrs. Kenneth Care, Mrs. Ill Pie and cake sales and rummage sales are scheduled for sometime in the fall.

The next meeting will be Thursday, Sept. 11, in the Moose hall.

Mrs. Kenneth Kulp.

Future Plans Made At All-Day Meeting Of Methodist WSCS

Members of the Coventryville Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service worked on embroidery and crocheting during the morning part of an all-day meeting Wednesday at the church.

A picnic luncheon was served at noon and a business meeting followed in the absence of the president and vice president.

Mrs. B. C. Dahms, who was in charge of the devotions, chose "Faith" as her topic. The scripture was taken from the fourth chapter of St. Mark. The key word at yesterday's meeting was "commandment." The key word at the next regular meeting scheduled for Sept. 10 will be "Disciple" or a sentence prayer.

THE MEETING will be held at the home of Mrs. Wayne Fulmer, Pottstown RD 2, with Mrs. Paul Trythall serving as co-hostess.

It was announced the Welcoming committee for Aug. 17 and 24 will be Mrs. Dahms and Mrs. Ernest Rhone. The committee for Aug. 31 and Sept. 7 is Mrs. Arthur Essick and Mrs. Trythall.

The group planned to hold a parcel post social Tuesday, Aug. 19, at 8 p. m. The social will be held at the home of Mrs. James Chapman, Pottstown RD 2. In the event of rain it will be held at the church.

The women were also reminded of the Sunday school picnic which is to be held Sept. 6 at the South Coventry school.

Attending yesterday's meeting were: Mrs. Morgan Williams and daughter, Linda, Dorothy Cavill, Mrs. Fulmer, Mrs. Trythall and daughter, Lorraine; Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Dahms and granddaughter, Nancy Hocker, Mrs. Edward Bayer, Mrs. Bruce Moses, Mrs. Essick, Mrs. Guest and Mrs. Rhone and son, David.

BEATRICE FAIRFAX'S

Advice to the Lovelorn
Is Life Pointless Unmarried?

I would be the last one to deny that marriage is the most important objective in any normal girl's life. But I do not believe that if a young woman fails of this objective she should sit moaning in sack cloth and ashes all the rest of her days. Unfortunately, that seems to be exactly what many of them do.

One who appears to be well on the way to her own sack cloth and ashes is the girl who writes me as follows:
"Three years ago, at the age of 17, I became engaged. After a year of our engagement my boy friend broke it off, merely saying he didn't love me any more. He didn't give me any other reason. I was so broken up that I had a nervous breakdown. Although it's over two years now since this happened I am still in love with this boy and can't forget him, and I would like to know how I can go about getting him back, because I believe that deep down he still loves me as much as I love him. A very close friend of his told me not long ago that he does love me.

"Then recently I met a fellow who is in service, and he told me he was in love with me and asked me to marry him. Without thinking, I told him I loved him, too, and said yes to his proposal. We were planning our wedding, when he fell out of love with me and broke our engagement, just like the other fellow. He wrote me a letter in which he said that if he finds he misses me very much, while he's overseas, he will know I am the girl he wants. I am not in love with this boy, but I would marry him.

"Please tell me what to do, as I am very miserable."
First I would like to tell this young woman a few things not to do. For one thing, she should never think of marrying the second man, or anybody else with whom she is not in love. If she were to do such a thing, she would probably soon find herself far more miserable than she is now.

Another thing she'd better not do is to bank on this serviceman finding out that she's the girl he wants. Anyhow, hasn't she too much pride to let him put her on trial like that and passively await his verdict?
A third thing not to do is to try and revive that first romance. If the young man is still in love with her, as she seems to feel sure he is—or is she merely trying to kid herself?—let him make the first advances.

Now for some things she should do.
The first of these, of course, is to stop telling herself how miserable she is. If she has the strength of character to stop dwelling constantly on her misery, it will gradually grow less, while if she keeps reminding herself of it, it will increase. Or perhaps she enjoys wallowing in self-pity.

Next, she should pick out something to do—a job, a hobby, a community project—and preferably the latter to start with, since the quickest way to get over feeling sorry for oneself is to do something for somebody else. Incidentally, there's lots of work for volunteers in veterans' hospitals these days which, naturally, would bring her in touch with many young men of her own age. Who knows? One of them might make her forget the two who have disappointed her so badly.

If she hasn't a hobby already, I suggest that she look into the possibilities and pick one out. In most

Doggie Roast Is Enjoyed
By German Club Women

A doggie roast was held by the Ladies' auxiliary of the German club after the business meeting last night at the club hall. Mrs. Mildred Stahl, president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Josephine Paschedag read the secretary's report and Mrs. Marian Marquardt, vice president, gave the treasurer's report in the absence of the regular treasurer. The flower fund report was given by Mrs. Retzel Betz.

It was announced that Mrs. Anne Miller will donate all chickens for the chicken dinner to be held before the next meeting on Sept. 11. Election of officers also will take place at this meeting. Pigeon-the-box was donated by Mrs. Stahl and won by Mrs. Eva Miller.

During the doggie roast the group enjoyed group singing.

Avoid storing canned foods in high kitchen cupboards because it's usually too warm there for them. If you have a coal bin in the cellar you can build shelves rarely long overlooked by the eligible young men.

Cosmetics for Little Girls

A little girl feels grown-up when she has her own toiletries. There's nothing like bubble bath for wash-up time glamour. If you have a little girl in your family whose birthday is approaching, and you are wondering what you can give her that will send her into a state of joy and rapture, look over cosmetic offerings made especially for children.

CLEAN COFFEEPOT

You can't expect to make good coffee in a grimy coffee pot. The inside should be wiped with a soapy cloth. A well-soaped percolator brush will get into spouts and tubes of electric coffee pots which cannot be soaked. Let water run from the faucet for a few minutes before you fill the pot when making coffee for a better flavor and don't forget the rule of one tablespoon of coffee for each cup of water, and an extra tablespoon of coffee for the pot.

Try this for a refreshing Summer salad. Dissolve a package of lemon flavored gelatin in a 12-ounce can of apricot whole fruit nectar that has been heated to just below boiling. Then add two tablespoons of lemon juice and one-half cup ungrained crushed pineapple. When almost set add one slice of banana. Turn into mold and chill until serving time.

Vows Pledged in Brief Rites for Eden-Churchill

By ALVIN STEINKOFF
LONDON, Aug. 14 (AP)—Debonair foreign secretary Anthony Eden married blue-eyed Clarissa Churchill, orphaned niece of Britain's Prime Minister, in a brief civil ceremony today at a London registry office.
The bride's uncle, Winston Churchill, beamed cherubically in signing the registry as chief witness, bringing into his family the man who some day may become his successor as leader of the Conservative party—and perhaps as Prime Minister.
Thousands of cheering well-wishers milled around in the bright noon sun outside Claxton hall where civil marriages are performed daily in assembly line fashion as the primal party entered and as it departed five minutes later for a private wedding breakfast at Churchill's official residence 10 Downing street.

SOME SPECTATORS fainted in the heat and excitement. Housewives hurried to the happy couple. A woman managed to squeeze through the police cordon to slip a nosegay in Eden's pocket.
The 32-year-old bride—once named London's most beautiful debutante—wore a lilac tulle dress and a tiny matching hat and carried a bouquet of red and white spotted orchids. She appeared a bit startled by all the photographers and the cheering and waving.
Eden, 55, wore a blue double-breasted lounge suit with a white carnation in the lapel. His grey hair and moustache meticulously brushed, the foreign secretary waved at the crowds and said he was the 'happiest man in London.'

OFFICIATING in the small registry room brimming with red and white gladioli and roses was the registrar James Doomsday Holiday. Since Eden is a divorced man the wedding was a civil one, compared to the mere essentials of identification and signing the registry. The Church of England refuses to marry divorced persons. For the same reason the royal family stayed away from Eden's second marriage.
Eden previously was married to the former Beatrice Beckett from whom he obtained a divorce on the grounds of desertion. She is now living in New York City.
The ceremony at Claxton hall was timed to the minute. Four other couples who came afterward to be married had the benefit of the Eden-Churchill floral decorations.

AFTER THE wedding formalities Eden proudly kissed his radiant bride.
About to leave the foreign secretary was assailed by a doubt.
"On which side of the bride do I walk?" he asked.
"I fear Sir that I am not an expert in such matters," growled Churchill.
But registrar Holiday knew and told Eden to walk to the right.

THE PARTY, escorted by mounted police, then drove to 10 Downing street for a breakfast of dressed crab, champagne and slices of a 12-pound single-layer white wedding cake which was Mrs. Churchill's special treat to her niece.
The prime minister and Mrs. Churchill have taken a special interest in their niece since her father, Maj. John Spencer Churchill, died in 1947 a year after the death of her mother, Lady Gwen deane Churchill.

At the end of the breakfast a little after 3 p. m. the bride and groom came out of 10 Downing street. Eden looked up to windows of the foreign office building across the way where members of his staff waved joyfully to their chief. Some of those at the foreign office knew the bride well too for she worked in the communications section there during World War II decoding telegrams and confidential documents.

A LIMOUSINE sped the newlyweds to a secluded home on the outskirts of London, where they will spend the night. The home, called "The Aviary," belongs to Eden's friend Whitely Straight, deputy chairman of the British Overseas Airways corporation (BOAC), who is away with his wife, Lady Daphne, on a holiday.

Tomorrow the Edens will fly to Lisbon, Portugal. For two days they will be the guests there of British Ambassador Sir Nigel Rodd. Then they will go 60 miles up the Mediterranean coast to Forth Do Arco, where they will stay at the secluded, British-run hotel Farbo about a week. They plan to return to London about Aug. 25.

Although the announcement of the wedding earlier this week took all London by surprise, the newweds have known each other for years. They share a deep interest in foreign affairs. The new Mrs. Eden has studied art and written critiques on the ballet, theater, books and movies for London newspapers. Recently she has been working in the publicity offices of British film producer Alexander Korda.

GUESTS AT the prime minister's breakfast party for the newweds were Sir Timothy Eden, brother of the foreign secretary; John and Peregrine Churchill, brothers of the bride; John Eden, son of Sir Timothy; Lady Islington, the Marquess and Marchioness of Salisbury; the Earl of Warwick and his son Lord Frooke; Viscount Bracken, Ran Gopin Churchill, son of the prime minister; Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Gandy; and Capt. and Mrs. Christopher Soames, daughters and sons-in-law of the prime minister; and Anthony Beauchamp, society photographer and another of the prime minister's sons-in-law.

CHOICE OF THREADS
It is a good idea when sewing fabrics woven from animal fibers (silks and wools) to use silk thread for vegetable fiber fabrics (hemp, cotton) cotton thread for man-made fiber fabrics (nylon, rayon) orlon, dacron) man-made fiber threads such as nylon or dacron.

SLIDE FASTENER
A new plastic slide fastener has no teeth, is said to be water tight, resistant to rust and rust-proof. It is said to be snag free and was designed especially to be used with plastic materials.
Buns made from a yeast dough taste good with a filling made of a cup of creamed cottage cheese, a quarter cup of sugar, and a half teaspoon of salt.

New Headlines

Certainly no daughter of Eve will be able to complain this season that it's the same old nat' story. After all, the little shells, the very shallow jobs, she is going to find plenty of clothes and lots of hair with deep crowns. Illustrative of these trends is this handsome cloche that has a look of greater depth and is yet light in feeling. Milgram does it in a vivid cerise velvet, and the trim is fringed with jet beading. A slender feather vain soaring from the crown is also edged with jet. This is a nat of distinction that is new and looks it.

Corbett Favors Rise In Postal Services

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 14 (AP)—If Congressman Robert Corbett (R-Pa.) has his way, the postman again will ring twice a day.
Corbett, third ranking GOP member of the House Post Office and Civil Service committee, says he is going to Denver next Monday to propose restoration of the former service including no delivery a day in the residential areas, four in the business districts and increased counter and pickup service.
The Pittsburgh congressman said he had a previous meeting with the Republican presidential candidate and that Eisenhower expressed a great deal of interest in the matter.
"The thing that concerns me is that there has been a substantial increase in postal rates over the past several years, coupled with decreased service. I'm going to propose restoration of the former service including no delivery a day in the residential areas, four in the business districts and increased counter and pickup service."

Man-Made Fibers Washable, Practical For College, School

The 1952 school wardrobe is going to be something completely new and unbelievably practical thanks to modern science.
The new synthetic fibers, used alone or combined with wool, are turning up in 'miracle' clothes that can be tossed into the tub with the greatest of ease, dried in a flash and often worn without pressing.

You can imagine what a difference these washable wardrobes are going to make in the lives of hard-working mothers and strictly budgeted college girls. Children's wool mixture skirts and dresses that can be laundered as easily as a sheet and worn with little or no ironing are going to make Mom's life much easier. And smart dresses that don't have to go to the cleaner are going to be life-savers for the college budget.

In the new lineup of 'miracle' fabrics are various combinations of orlon, dacron, nylon and wool in various styles and textures which look like pure wool but have added talents such as crease resistance and washability. Dressier silk-like fabrics are made from the pure fibers or from combinations such as orlon and nylon.

Although all of the new man-made fabrics have been on the market in limited supply for several years, this is the first year in which the new blends fully marketed are available in abundant supply and in many finishes and fashions.

It looks as if a new day is dawning in the world of practical clothing with the accent on fashions perfected by science.

In a Suburban league game that rolled along on five innings of zeros in the score column last night, Gilbertsville finally broke loose for three runs in the sixth and narrowly won the game in the eight hits and their sudden three-run outburst looked like a million the way Ludy was hurling. Another run in the top of the seventh was scored by Gilbertsville on a fielder's choice play.

Dick Ludy and Joe Narieka tied up in a good mound duel and locked the door to home every time an opponent got near until the sixth.

As it turned out, the run was most crucial as Linfield cut loose with a bolt of its own in the bottom of the frame.

The ball game with three runs across and the tying run on third. The Amole Post batting champion never made it home as Ludy retired the last batter to win his first Suburban league game.

Yanks' Schmitz Wins - Giants Nip Dodgers

NEW YORK, Aug. 14 (AP)—Yankee left-hander Johnny Schmitz breezed to an easy 7-2 victory over the Washington Senators in his everyday pitcher, stopped Brooklyn with a fine job in relief of Sal Maglie today as the Giants cut the Dodgers' league lead to eight games.

The Brooklyn Dodgers' castoff held the Nats to six safeties and with a 4-3 victory.

Wes Westrum, later banished by umpire Tom Gorman in a dispute provide the Giants' winning margin.

Victory in this important series, two games to one, gave the Giants 10 wins in 15 starts against the club they beat for the pennant last year.

Phil Down Braves
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14 (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies took advantage of a Boston error and bunched six of their 10 hits in two innings to score all their runs and defeat the Braves 5-3 today behind the nine-hit pitching of Russ Meyer who chalked up victory No. 5.

Warren Spahn, the losing pitcher, gave up only one hit in the first four innings but then his touch gave way as the Phils turned two fifth inning singles and an error into two runs—both unearned—while leaving three runners on base.

Lefty Maury McDermott pitched four-hit ball over the last nine and two-thirds innings of the first game after relieving rookie Dick Brodowski with the bases loaded.

In the nightcap, Ellis Kinder, in American League action for the first time since June 7, slammed the doors on the rallying Athletics in the eighth inning to save the game for Willard Nixon.

A two-run homer by rookie Dick Gernert put the Red Sox into a 4-4 deadlock in the sixth.

Fox Leads Sox
DETROIT, Aug. 14 (AP)—Nellie Fox' two-run triple in the 10th inning and Marvin Grissom's three-hit pitching helped the Chicago White Sox to a 2-0 victory over the Detroit Tigers today.

Grissom, a Tiger castoff, gave up two singles in the third and another in the fourth to win his eighth victory.

Grissom started the winning rally with a double to the left field wall. Hector Rodriguez singled over second and Grissom moved to third. Fox powered the ball over center fielder Johnny Groth's head to score Hal Brown, running for Grissom, and Rodriguez.

Cees Take Cage Lead

Had it not been for a decision by league director Ed Good on Wednesday night to lengthen the final playoff series in the Area Basketball circuit to best-of-five instead of the originally planned two-out-of-three series, the Pottstown Cees would have become the playoff champs last night.

The Cees sent the A's down for the count, 52-50, at the Junior High school and took a 2-1 advantage in the championship set.

Facing the Cees in their second straight victory were Steve Chernesky and Jack Pollick, who split 35 points between them.

The Cees fought from behind a four point eight ball after trailing, 9-5, at the end of the initial quarter. They were strictly a double figure team after that, assuming the lead at the half, 24-16, on a 19-point barrage in the second stanza and racking up two straight 14 periods in the second half to assume the decision.

PLAYGROUND LEADERS PLAY

Staff Members Attend Banquet Marking End Of Recreation Season

Staff members of Pottstown playgrounds were honored at a banquet at the Seven Stars restaurant on Route 23 last night. The playground leaders have worked with about 1300 children ever since June 16 at the borough's nine recreation areas, teaching them games and crafts and developing their skills in sports. Leaders at the banquet last night included Jeanne Brown, Connie Ottlinger, Patricia Reis, Venice Eagle, Gertrude Roper, David Towers, Dolores Fuhl, Mary Lou Singer, Genevieve Snyder, Sandra Skean, Doris Miller, Mrs. Jean Ann Liesau, Barbara Cressman, Kenneth Schintine and Joan Jacobs. Other playground officials present were Mrs. Florence Manthorne, director of playgrounds who acted as mistress of ceremonies at last night's celebration; Robert A. Reis, director of recreation; and Mrs. Vera B. Lumis, supervisor of crafts.

MEMBERS OF BOROUGH council's recreation committee present last night were J. M. Creswell, president; Leonard Hillwine, secretary and treasurer; and I. LeRoy Johnson, vice president.

Burgess William A. Griffith and Dr. G. A. McCormick, superintendent of schools, were guests at the evening's entertainment.

Others present were Edward Good, Charles Fozely, Howard Horricks, Joan Schellenberger, Mrs. Richard Ricketts, Arteria Martin and Morell Grigg.

After the dinner, the group participated in short skits and a songfest.

SCHINTINE, who has had previous experience in organizing an orchestra, offered a "rendition" by his new-found group, all playing plastic toy instruments. A vocal solo by Mrs. Liesau with Doris Miller at the piano was one of the musical highlights of the evening's entertainment.

The humorous portion of the entertainment came when Reis, Towers, Dr. McCormick and Creswell put on a skit called "If Men Played Cards as Women Do."

After a bout two-and-a-half hours of merry making, the banquet ended and the leaders went home to get a good night's rest for today.

Today ends the season's playground activities at all nine areas.

Society Brings Children Together

A group of children placed in foster homes by the Children's Aid Society of Montgomery county, are shown in the playroom of the society's headquarters in Norristown, under the supervision of a staff worker. Children of one family which must be split up among several foster homes are brought in contact with one another at periodic intervals at the society headquarters. The United Fund agency has provided homes for 135 youngsters during the past year, including 26 in the Pottstown area. (Story on Page 1).

Rotary Club Hears Scandinavian Talk

Norway after World War II, its shortages and the effects of German occupation on its people were outlined to Rotarians last night by Harold O. Hill. The assistant chief engineer of the Bethlehem Steel company plant, Bethlehem, who spent September and August of 1947 in Norway and Sweden, illustrated his talk with slides. He explained the lack of luxuries in Norwegian hotels, the meager menus and piles of wood fuel, used because of the lack of better fuels. Hill is a past president of the Bethlehem Rotary club. Pottstown Attorney Joseph L. Prince outlined obligations of Rotarians in a brief talk entitled "Gems of Rotary."

Walter F. Heise, president, presided at the session in the Elks home. Sixty-five members were present.

Traces Are Uncovered In Missing Girl Hunt

HARRISBURG, Aug. 14 (AP)—The mother of a missing 12-year-old girl from Bath, N. Y., told police here today that she believed she had uncovered traces of her daughter in this area. The girl, Patricia Smith, of Bath, N. Y., disappeared from home on Monday leaving a note saying she wished she could be allowed to "grow up," the mother said. Mrs. Nellie Smith said she had negatives of pictures of her daughter printed here and that the proprietor of a restaurant at nearby Amity Hall said he believed he had seen the same girl with a truckdriver this week. Mrs. Smith, who has been making inquiries all along Route 15 through Pennsylvania, said she believes the girl is headed for Norfolk, Va. Route 15 runs from New York State, through Pennsylvania and Maryland to Virginia.

Drive Nets $11,799 For New Ambulance

The Good Will ambulance fund drive netted $11,799 it was announced last night by Harry Wertz, chairman of the ambulance committee. Submitting his report at the August meeting of the fire company Wertz listed 143 ambulance calls for July and said a new ambulance would be delivered in six weeks. Chief Robert Roth reported 16 fire calls for the past month which boosts the yearly total to 72. Twenty-one applications for membership and 14 new members were approved. After the business meeting 65 members present were served steak sandwiches by Donald Davis.

President Leslie Rhoads was in charge.

Boy Loses Balance, Cuts Arm on School Window

Michael Medvitz, 10, of 347 Union alley, suffered deep cuts of the left arm yesterday afternoon when he lost his balance while playing and his arm crashed through a window of the Jefferson school. Eight sutures were required at Memorial hospital at 3:55 o'clock to close the wounds. The youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Medvitz.

Pottstown Pilots Pick New Club President

Vice President Paul Mitchell assumed the presidency of the Pottstown Pilots club at the group's August meeting at the Municipal airport last night.

Herbert N. Maier and his wife, Katherine, president and secretary of the club respectively, resigned their posts at the July meeting because Maier, a Doebler-Jarvis Die Casting corporation physicist had been transferred to Toledo, Ohio.

Elections to fill the vice presidential and secretarial vacancies will be conducted at the September meeting.

The 18 members present at last night's meeting set Wednesday night as the time for a meeting with Pottstown Fire Police representatives to arrange for policing of the spectator area at the airport during the bicentennial air show August 24.

A Commendable Record

THERE was a time when nothing was thought of a municipal body staying within its budget.
But times have changed. Today, in the age of "tax and spend and tax and spend," there's little lifting of surprised eyebrows when deficit spending reaches astronomical heights.

The Federal government sets the pace by spending billions of dollars we haven't got. States have followed suite by wallowing in the Washington money-mud-hole and getting over their heads at home. Even cities now think nothing of getting deeply into debt.

It's commendable, then, to find a governmental sub-division that stays within its budget.

That's Pottstown! (bless it!)

Taxpayers beamed yesterday when J. Wayne Knause, chairman of the borough finance committee, announced Pottstown should finish the year in the black!

Man, that's unheard of!
"The budget looks excellent," the purse watcher said. Then he went on to say various departments not only were keeping within their budgets, but revenues in some cases were exceeding expectations.

That's a mighty fine report. Councilman Knause should be congratulated. It's good housekeeping and deserves commendation!

Let's hope the Pottstown borough council continues to watch the budget carefully, and watches the expenditure of money more closely. Pottstown doesn't want a tax increase!

This latter assertion is backed by some anonymous mail that has been coming through officials' way. It has been mailed to the borough manager's office, in various councilmen.

Usually it's in the form of newspaper clippings. The clippings disclose stories of tax-cutting moves, of municipalities' efforts to force economies.

Maybe councilmen have been alerted to the citizenry's cry against more taxes. Staying within the budget should please these folks.

No Seventh Heaven

FACTUAL reports from retailers of all types and sizes indicate that, as a general rule, sales are running at good levels—but profits are very low, in some cases dangerously so.

Various reasons are given for this—higher wages and taxes, unfair government regulations, and so on. In addition, competition is extremely keen, and on occasion has resulted in excessive price-cutting.

Here is the answer to those who believe that, because prices are high and a vast mass of goods is being funneled through the stores, retailing is in a seventh heaven.

The fact is that the retailer's unavoidable operating costs have tended to outpace the rises in prices that have taken place in late years.

The consequence is that in thousands of retailing operations, big and little, the owners' net—the money that's left after all the bills and taxes and wages are paid—is less than it was in the days when prices were much lower and the dollar hadn't shrunk to the size of a fifty-cent piece.

In a free economy, where there are no brakes on competition, profits are always held to reasonable levels.

At the same time, when profits become too low, the interest of the consumer as well as the interest of the storekeeper is endangered.

No business can operate for any great length of time at peak efficiency unless it earns a fair profit.

The health of any enterprise is largely measured by the profit figure—and a healthy, vigorous retailing industry is one of the cornerstones of our economy.

Editor, The Mercury.

Dear Sir "n" Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where, German scientists are working on a rocket that will shoot mail from Europe to the U. S. in 60 minutes. I'm against it. The way it is now we get the bad news from over there fast enough!

An item says a French expedition seeking remnants of Noah's Ark on Ararat ran into a violent rain storm. Just like old times!

And say: I'm not committing myself as to which presidential candidate I'll support until both Eisenhower and Stevenson reveal their policy toward flying saucers!

Hopin' you air the same.

'Glasgow Kids' Razz School Board

'Let's Go, Kids'

To the Editor: A bouquet of skunk cabbage to the school directors who have made us walk by saying "No" to buses for us to go to school.

Perhaps on a rainy day they'll come back for us.

You see, we have no public bus service or pavements so we can go back to the "good old days" and use the road; but then they had no speeding cars in rush by and splash them up to sit in school wet all day.

I'm sure when we grow up (21) we will remember this and keep away from public servants whose only thought is to save at our expense.

We hope our Daddys will go to the next board meeting in a group. Let's go kids, and hunt skunk cabbage. Don't wait till Spring or they might take free education from us by then (Just to save).

Pottstown RD 3 GLASGOW KIDS
P.S.—There are about 15 of us. Want all our names so they can find us on a rainy day?

Truck Drivers Rapped

To the Editor: I often wonder if customer goodwill is considered by some of our firms, like bakeries and milk companies and dry cleaners and the like.

I refer to unthinking acts of truck drivers who must cost their firms some lost customers.

Specifically, I refer to the truck driver who will drive his truck on the wrong side of the street, scaring the wits out of other motorists. Also the milk man and the bakery man who will park his truck in the middle of the street, or at an angle, whereby other motorists can't pass.

Why does the truck driver think he is specially favored by being allowed to do these things?

I'm an early morning driver and I find most of these illegal acts are committed then. Milkmen are especially careless with the law, and some bakery truck drivers ought to be handed a State motor code.

Some of these companies must have safety schools. Some probably give their "safe" drivers rewards. But what of the driver's respect for the poor motorist who is inconvenienced? Shouldn't that be considered when prizes are handed out.

I know a man who stopped patronizing a firm because he got angry at this flagrant disregard of courtesy on the road by a truck driver.

Maybe that isn't the Christian attitude to take. But I wanted the firms to know people are harassed by their unthinking drivers, and I think a word from their bosses might stop it.

Streets Are Embarrassing

To the Editor: Was I embarrassed! The other night I wanted to show a newcomer to Pottstown what sights we have to offer.

We rode off High street, up Hanover and onto Diamond. The ride was a little bumpy but I didn't feel that an apology was necessary. Then we crossed Charlotte and continued on Diamond out to the country club! What a ride!

But the best was yet to come.

I wanted to get onto Keim street and after going through the drive of the club got onto Jackson street—street did I say? My poor guest was exhausted!

To climax our evening, as we rode to the "safety" of High street and pulled up in wait for the light to change, a carload of ruffians tried to race with us.

Oh, my, such a town—at times.

WASHINGTON

Senate Candidates May Strengthen Stevenson

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The Democrats' selection of popular and formidable candidates for the United States Senate in several doubtful states may prove to be a definite asset for Governor Adlai E. Stevenson when the electoral roll is tabulated next January. They may carry him to victory in these areas on their community coal-tails.

This local reinforcement is especially valuable—in fact, essential—to the Democratic presidential nominee because he is relatively unknown outside his own state of Illinois.

How to overcome this handicap in a short campaign is one of the chief concerns at Springfield. Stevenson must depend on the home-state talent to make him known to their constituents as they stump their respective states.

It is a lucky break for him that so many states have named first-rate men to run on the same ticket with him.

VOTE-GETTERS: This situation is exemplified most strikingly in the Middle West, where isolationist sentiment may react adversely against Stevenson's plan to defend the general foreign policy enunciated and executed by President Truman and Secretary Acheson.

Unless there has been a tremendous shift of public opinion since 1948, the Democratic nominee is expected to carry Illinois. He swept it by 572,000 only four years ago, and it is generally admitted that he ruled the state well. The Arvey machine in Cook County would outdo itself to place him in the White House.

In Indiana the Democrats have nominated Governor Henry F. Schricker, who placed Stevenson in nomination at Chicago. Schricker is one of the best Democratic vote-getters the Hoosier state has produced in many years. It is generally believed that he will defeat Senator William E. Jenner who is regarded as a second-rater on Capitol Hill.

W. Stuart Symington's defeat of the presidential favorite, Attorney General J. E. Taylor, in Missouri can be chalked up as a gain for Stevenson. Symington's tremendous primary vote, as well as his prestige and personality, give him an edge over the Republican incumbent, Senator James P. Kem. Taylor would have been only a so-so candidate.

Although Tennessee is normally a Democratic state, Representative Albert Gore's trimming of the Senate octogenarian, Kenneth McKellar, should make sure that it will not waver. As one of the youngest and ablest members of the House, Gore should sweep Tennessee into the Democratic column for himself and Stevenson.

STRONG: In another section of the country—Massachusetts—the Democrats have named a strong man to oppose Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. He is Representative John Kennedy, son of the former SEC chairman and Ambassador to England.

Lodge is not the sure winner he is supposed to be. His service support of the Truman-Acheson foreign policy has antagonized certain Bay State elements.

Like his father, Kennedy has not hesitated to criticize certain aspects of the Administration's foreign policy in a state which has many anti-British voters.

Ironically, President Truman has opposed, publicly or privately, almost all of these men whose nomination should promote Stevenson's chances.

He has recently revealed that Barkley was his choice over Stevenson until the "veep" was forced to withdraw because of labor's opposition. He backed Taylor against Symington in Missouri. He favored McKellar over Gore, a Kefauver type of insurgent. He has no love for Schricker, who has not been too friendly with the McKinney-McHale faction.

While he took no part in Massachusetts politics, Truman has resented young Kennedy's criticism of various phases of the aid-to-Europe program.

Perhaps they can plan a wedding for the young couple and thus relieve this girl of the additional worry which she faces at the thought of unwed motherhood.

She seemed much encouraged when I sent her home, but I am not so encouraged. This boy has run away from an unsolved dilemma at home.

Apparently his love for the girl was not very deep and abiding. If his mother's apparent fondness for Dora is as shallow as her son's, then Dora is going to pay the full price of her sex folly.

Gossip In Gotham

ANGEL MONEY is so scarce on Broadway that Robert Alda and a troupe will fly to Toronto next Sunday to audition the book and score of "Herald Square" for a group of Canadian investors.

Franchot Tonne and Betty Von Furstenberg warmed up the atmosphere of the Downtown night before last—came in around 2 a. m. and didn't seem to care who gawked while they exchanged kisses. The patrons loved it.

City desks with a yen for light Summer reading might check around on this one: Joan Kayne, who was just chosen as "Miss New York City" for the Miss America contest, looks amazingly like a girl who lives on Collax avenue, Clifton, N. J. So amazingly that it might be a page one scooperoo, and Atlantic City papers please copy. . . . Barry Fitzgerald has been offered the job of director of Irish television.

DAPHNE WALKER, the British Sonja Henie, will hit the front pages with her divorce story. . . . Pat Neal is so in love with Peter Douglas—Sharmian's brother—that she may succumb to the elopement idea instead of waiting for the Fall wedding. (And it seems only yesterday that her best friends thought she'd "never get over" Gary Cooper.)

Marguerite Piazza and the Met won't duet this season. She'll concentrate on TV and radio. . . . Cary Grant is bedded with virus. . . . The Capri in Atlantic Beach, which tried to click with big-name night club entertainment, has lost $50,000 so far this Summer.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

DORA, O. 17, is in love with a young soldier of 18.

"Dr. Crane, we are crazy about each other," she blurted out. "Besides all his friends tell me that he loves me more than anybody else."

"But we did something we shouldn't, so I am going to have a baby. I haven't told my mother yet, though it's been three months."

"My boy friend left for the army yesterday. He knows we are going to have a baby. I thought we should get married before he went away but he said times were too uncertain now for marriage."

"So, I don't know what to do. Should I tell my mother? Or should I go to this boy's family and tell them? His mother was always fond of me."

PLEASE NOTICE Dora's first two sentences. She is like the boy who whistles in the dark to keep up his courage.

For she really isn't so sure that her boy friend loves her. She is trying to convince herself.

Thus, her protest about their great love for each other, is partially wishful thinking. She "hopes" he truly loves her!

But his actions speak louder than words! He glibly pushed aside her suggestion of matrimony with the insane reply that conditions are too uncertain in time of war to warrant marriage!

By such a callous remark, he has simply made things far more terrifying for his young sweetheart, who already doesn't know where to turn or what to do.

After a girl is in Dora's dilemma, it only adds further to her unhappiness to remind her that I have repeatedly warned you young people against letting your emotions run away with your brain.

So I simply suggested that she tell her mother and the boy's mother at once. Thus she can let them take over part of the load which she is now carrying alone.

Perhaps they can plan a wedding for the young couple and thus relieve this girl of the additional worry which she faces at the thought of unwed motherhood.

She seemed much encouraged when I sent her home, but I am not so encouraged. This boy has run away from an unsolved dilemma at home.

Apparently his love for the girl was not very deep and abiding. If his mother's apparent fondness for Dora is as shallow as her son's, then Dora is going to pay the full price of her sex folly.

Hollywood

By EDITH GWYNN

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 14.—Is everything O.K. at the Ida Lupino-Howard Duff diggings? Hate to mention it, but the question's in line with the rumors. . . . Any way, while Ida is busy producing pictures with ex-hubby, Collier Young, Duff does his first movie in some time.

Costars with Teresa Wright in "In a Napoli Story" for Allied Artists next month. . . . Weekend was pediculous (look it up!) with Parties. There was a barbecue barge in the Malibu region. But the fog that rolled in was ten times thicker than the steaks. People had to grope their way around. (Is that bad?) . . . There was a smallish soiree at which Ethel Merman and Van Johnson duetted ditties from "Call Me, Madam"—and did so well, it reminded Van to be blue again about not having the crack at a musical (cinema OR stage show) he's been craving. However, Merman and Johnson hope they'll get a chance to repeat their "act" at a benefit around here one of these nights.

Ida Lupino

AT ANOTHER affair, Red Skelton made the funniest crack of the year to Kinz Farouk's son-in-law—about Farouk! Wish it were printable! Red also amused guests by pouring wine, seltzer, etc., up his sleeves trying to do a magic act. Then he had to dash home and change his clothes, in order to finish up the evening. . . . Sonja Henie back in Hollywood for a couple days, told us we must be off! "Well read," said "Skates." "You printed I was opening my ice revue in San Diego instead of San Bernardino Aug. 19th—and a few million people called to ask if I'd changed my plans!" Sorry, gal!

THE "HOSTESS with the mostest" was of course, Marie McDonald, who with husband, Henry Karl dined and wined hundreds at Mocambo to honor the Jake Arves and the Sidney Korshaks—four very attractive people. Danny Thomas paid them brief but potent mention in an amusing speech harshly interrupted by the drunken heckling of Gary Merrill. By now, everyone probably knows that a few minutes later Merrill and his paid dinner-jacket (on him it didn't look good!) were gently but firmly deposited OUTSIDE! So we won't go into that. Can't help wondering how a certain party crashing pillarist, who spends much time, at Betty Davises Buttercup Farm, is going to gush Gary's way out of THIS one! The Harry Karl's will be taking bows for days to come on the beautiful garden-laden decor and the sumptuous buffet.

State's Draft Quota Is Set for October

HARRISBURG, Aug. 14 (AP)—Pennsylvania's draft quota for October was fixed today at 4844 men, a big increase over those for August and September.

However, State draft headquarters said the increased quota would not affect 19-year-olds and fathers, who are now in deferred classifications.

"We still should have enough men from the above 20-year age group to meet our normal requirements for the rest of the year — even if they are higher than they have been, as they are expected to be," said Lt. Col. Frank J. Graf, deputy State director.

He added Pennsylvania has an adequate pool of eligible draftees — outside the 19-year-old and father class — who have been examined and passed all requirements for induction or who are ready to be examined. That total was estimated at 6400 on June 30.

There are about 5000 men in the State turning 20 each month. We haven't been examining all of them because our quotas calls have been light. Many states are much further down in their manpower pool than we are."

North Korean Premier Gives Armistice Speech.

TOKYO, Friday, Aug. 15 (AP)—North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung declared last night that "we hope to get an armistice agreement wherein there is neither victor nor vanquished."

His speech, unusually moderate in tone, was delivered at the North Korean capital of Pyongyang during a rally on the eve of the seventh anniversary of Japan's surrender.

Kim said "U. S. insistence on compulsory retention of Communist prisoners is the only obstacle holding up final settlement of the Korean dispute."

He charged that the United States "is trying to break the back of North Korean resistance by attacking cities, farming villages and electric power plants."

Tactical Maneuvers To Start for Guard Air, Ground Groups

HARRISBURG, Aug. 14 (AP)—Six thousand National Guardsmen belonging to 14 Army and air units will take part in a two-week Summer encampment beginning Saturday at Indiantown Gap and Spaatz field, Reading.

Two major objectives were outlined by the state department of military affairs for the field training program:

1. To provide a State military force capable of immediate action in the event of a local or state-wide emergency.
2. To train the Guard—as a national reserve force ready to enter combat with only a minimum of active duty training.

THE ENCAMPMENT will be coordinated by the adjutant general Cavalry regiment and 111th Infantry and the State National Guard headquarters with a central command post at Indiantown Gap.

Tactical training at both Indiantown Gap and Reading will get into full swing Monday. Philadelphia's 166th Field Artillery battalion is scheduled to open fire on the artillery ranges early in the week. Tanks of the 104th Armored Cavalry regiment and 111th Infantry regiment will begin maneuvers Monday.

Mark Sullivan, Dean Of U. S. Columnists, Dies of Heart Attack

WEST CHESTER, Aug. 14 (AP)—Mark Sullivan, dean of American newspaper columnists, died of a heart attack last night in Chester County hospital. He would have been 58 on Sept. 10.

A working newspaperman author and political analyst for 64 years, Sullivan was stricken at his farm home in nearby Avondale. This farm built by his Irish immigrant parents was his birthplace.

He returned there several years ago and continued to write his twice a week column for the New York Herald Tribune and other newspapers almost to the moment of his death.

Sullivan was the author of several books, including his own autobiography, and once wrote for the Ladies Home Journal. He also served several years as editor of Collier's magazine.

ONE OF 10 children, all of whom gave a mark for themselves in life, Sullivan is survived by a son and two daughters. Tentative plans for the funeral have been set for Saturday at nearby West Chester.

His brother, the late Thomas Sullivan, left nearly $500,000 to Temple University and that school dedicated the Sullivan Memorial library in his honor.

A personal friend of two presidents, Theodore Roosevelt and Herbert Hoover, Sullivan was zealous for education and sold his interest in a small Pennsylvania newspaper—the Phoenixville Republican—to enter Harvard College. At that time he was only 19.

He earned an A. B. at Harvard, then went three more years through its law school paying his way by writing feature articles for Boston newspapers.

Though he never practiced law, Sullivan used his legal training to good advantage in his magazine and newspaper work. It served him in good stead as he became one of the nation's top political writers.

He was a crusader, too, having spearheaded a drive against the patent medicine evil in a series of articles in Edward Bok's Ladies Home Journal. His 1904 crusade paid dividends two years later when Congress enacted the first Pure Food and Drug act.

Auto Industry Requests Hike in Steel Allotments

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (AP)—The auto industry, contending that the Government has exaggerated the prospective steel shortage asked today for sharply increased steel allotments after Oct. 1.

Auto makers told the National Production Authority in their appeal that unless allotments are increased, auto production in the last quarter of the year will fall per hour with just two boilers.

Pittsburgh Steel Signs Contract With Union

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 14 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Steel company signed a contract with the CIO United Steelworkers today, formally ending the 1932 steel strike for the firm's 10,000 production workers.

Pittsburgh Steel resumed production June 27 under an interim agreement.

The settlement came as Jones and Laughlin Steel corporation was reported near agreement with the union. J and L also is back at work.

The final pact for Pittsburgh Steel retains the wage modified union shop and other settlements reached in the White House negotiations which ended the 35-day general walkout. The contract runs through June 30, 1934, but may be reopened in June 1933 with respect to wages.

Demo Campaign Kickoff Set Sept. 6 for State

HARRISBURG, Aug. 14 (AP)—Democratic leaders of Pennsylvania today set Sept. 6 as the kickoff of their campaign to carry the Keystone State in the Nov. 4 general election.

The party's State Policy committee set that date for a huge rally banquet here to follow a meeting of the 113 member State ground coal mines in 1922 more than 1000 miles of belting have been installed.

ocratic national chairman, was mentioned as a possible speaker.

The 21 member policy committee met in closed session for more than two hours to plan strategy for the Fall campaign. Mrs. Ruth Grigg Hortuz, Lancaster, State vice chairman, presided in the absence of State Chairman Maurice Splain Jr.

Since the first conveyor belts were put in operation in underground coal mines in 1922 more than 1000 miles of belting have been installed.

SURRENDER NOT NOTED IN JAPAN

Japanese Will Ignore Seventh Anniversary of Date When Empire Folded

TOKYO, Friday, Aug. 15 (U)—The dream of empire blew up seven years ago today but a rebuilt, independent Japan will ignore this fateful surrender anniversary.

Japanese will leave any celebrating to the Koreans among them. About 6000 Koreans scheduled a rally in Tokyo to celebrate this day, which meant an end of 40 years of bondage under the Japanese.

The Japanese themselves are preoccupied with the problems of foreign trade, rearming in a dangerous world, and the bid for political power which some wartime leaders will make this fall.

Japan has come far since that Aug. 15, 1945, when a startled and unbelieving people heard their Emperor announce that the game was up.

THE CITIES and great ports lay in ruins from Allied bombings and naval shelling. Most of the imperial fleet and the merchant fleet lay at the bottom of the sea. And soon the conqueror would come.

With the help of a mild Allied occupation, the Japanese have erased most of the scars of war that gaped wide in every major city.

Even the world situation was in Japan's favor. The fall of China to Communism and war in Korea convinced the Western world that Japan would have to become a friend and ally.

A peace treaty was signed in San Francisco the past September and went into effect on April 28.

Now Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida, who steered Japan expertly through most of the seven troubled years, faces a political fight for life this fall.

IT WAS Yoshida who got the best deal he could from the occupation, helped negotiate the treaty and went to the United States to sign it. And it was he who, while satisfying the West, managed to preserve more independence for Japan than most people thought possible.

With National Diet elections expected in November or December, Yoshida will take his case to the people.

His biggest struggle is within his own Liberal (Conservative) party. There he is challenged for party leadership — and probably for the prime minister's post — by Ichiro Hatoyama.

Hatoyama led Yoshida's party until he was purged from public life by the occupation for his pro-Asis writing in wartime.

Yoshida took over the leadership of the Conservatives when Hatoyama was purged. Yoshida's men argue that Hatoyama has suffered a stroke and is no physical condition to take over again.

Party Chairman And Truman Discuss Campaign Strategy

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (U)—Stephen A. Mitchell, new chairman of the Democratic National committee, talked over campaign strategy with President Truman today and then told newsmen, "of course, there will be complete co-operation."

Mitchell is the man whom Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, the presidential nominee, picked the past week to take over the national committee reins from Frank E. McKinney, who was Truman's choice.

Mitchell talked with Truman for 25 minutes and then spent nearly an hour conferring with various members of the White House staff. Asked whether there would be co-operation between the White House and Stevenson during the campaign, Mitchell said:

"There is no question about it in my mind. Of course, there will be complete co-operation."

It was Mitchell's first call on the President since Stevenson announced Mitchell's selection as national chairman the past Friday. He told reporters Truman "was warm, friendly, helpful and very gracious," and he continued:

"The main purpose of my call was to get acquainted with the President in my new capacity and to have a general talk on politics and the campaign."

"THE PRESIDENT and I talked over several matters, and while I will be glad to be co-operative, I can't start answering questions as to all the subjects we covered."

Among the questions he declined to answer was whether he and Truman talked over the question of calling Congress back into special session to deal with price controls. Truman has said he is considering such a session.

Mitchell also declined to specify the Truman aides with whom he talked, except to say there were a number of them.

Stevenson himself called at the White House on Tuesday to talk over the forthcoming campaign. Today his Republican opponent, Dwight D. Eisenhower, declined an invitation to come to the White House for a briefing on foreign affairs.

Mitchell, a Chicago attorney, is a long-time associate of Stevenson.

PUC Orders 5-Year Phone Cost Estimate

HARRISBURG, Aug. 14 (U)—The Public Utility commission today ordered the Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania to estimate how much it would cost to reproduce the utility's entire facilities based on average costs of a five-year period.

The order is in connection with a rate increase amounting to $31,706,000 annually sought by the company.

The proposed increases would affect two million Bell subscribers and would boost most residence bills 50 cents a month. They would also make the basic pay booth call a dime instead of a nickel. In previous hearings Bell has submitted reproduction estimates based on one and two-year cost studies. But the utility declined a PUC request for the five-year figure because Bell believed it would be too costly to make and was not relevant to the case.

Two Stores Blow Up; Seven Persons Treated

MARIANNA, Fla., Aug. 14 (U)—Two stores and part of a third were blown up here today. Seven persons were given hospital first aid for cuts from flying glass. A gas leak was suspected but an investigation was delayed until smoldering flames were put out.

A drug store and barbershop were just blown into nothingness. An adjacent fashion shop was damaged and resultant fire completed its destruction. These were one-story brick buildings. A nearby two-story insurance company building was damaged by smoke and water.

Steel Company Justice Resigns Post Lists Expansion At $300,000

A $300,000 expansion program, which will increase production at the Keystone Driven Steel company, Spring City, about 40 percent, was announced yesterday by Willard N. Lynch Jr., president.

The program will include the construction of three new buildings, installation of new equipment and the relocation of certain existing facilities, in addition to buying new property, Lynch said.

The steel firm's president pointed out that the three new building additions will be the main portion of the expansion program.

Lynch said the program will provide men with more working space and the application of a continuous system will provide a continuous flow of materials which will eliminate much rehandling of stock. He said the new layout would allow more space for storage and would result in better shipping facilities.

THE 200-TON railroad bridge, spanning the old canal, adjoining the plant, will be razed, Lynch said. The canal will be filled in at that point and a building extension will be constructed across it, to provide a shipping station at the rear of the building, he said.

The program will make Keystone one of the largest plants of its kind in the Philadelphia area, Lynch said.

Liberty's Siren Sounds Better in New Position

The recent decision of Liberty Fire company, Spring City, to elevate its fire siren proved successful when the siren was put through a test last night.

Various fire code signals were sounded, and carried through the air waves with considerable more volume at distant points. The fire siren was raised 16 feet above its former level, which provided more range.

Spring City Playground To Close With Picnic

Spring City playground will close today, with a picnic and games as the highlights. Events for children 6-to-8 years old is cause for the elementary school boys and girls will be held at the high the New York Jewish Child Care Council.

The children will meet at the elementary school at 10 a. m. and then the council found that mothers walk in a group to the high school, had to reduce their hours of work. Each child should take a packed or pay for private care. The city lunch and a drinking cup. Races can care for only 1600 such children and hundreds are on the wait list. The event will not be held if the weather is unfavorable.

Inadequate Child Care Blamed for Family Hls

NEW YORK, Aug. 14 (AP)—A lack of adequate facilities for day-care games as the highlights. Events for children 6-to-8 years old is cause for the elementary school boys and girls will be held at the high the New York Jewish Child Care Council.

U. S. to Avoid Russia In NATO Maneuvers

PARIS, Aug. 14 (AP)—An allied military source said tonight the U. S. will lean over backward to avoid offending the Soviet Union during the big air-sea drills beginning in European waters Sept. 13.

The joint maneuver by members of the forces of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has been given the code name "Mainbrace."

A spokesman at Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers in Europe said U. S. vessels taking part will steer clear of the southern Baltic off Soviet-occupied East Germany.

Specifically, it was learned, American ships will avoid Bornholm, Danish island in the southern Baltic. This island was occupied by Russia during World War II but was returned to the Danes after the war. It would be a legitimate exercise ground, since Denmark is a NATO member, but to insist on a parade of American naval might around it would not be prudent, SHAPE believes.
